Indexing Nail Puller

Trusted by the Trades.

14 Ways to Make a Nail Cry “UNCLE!”

An indexing head gives this pry bar the power to pull even the toughest nails.

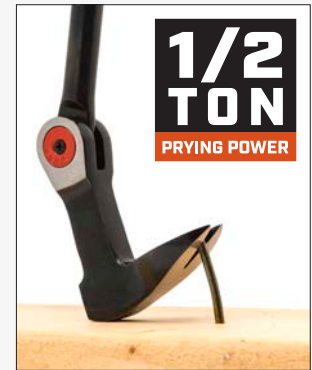

Secure, Ergonomic, Contoured Handle
For grip and user safety

Striking Face
Allows for claw to be driven under nails that are under the surface

14-Position Indexing Joint
Meets and exceeds ASME standards for strength

Adjustable Head
Pivots 180 degrees to provide best leverage

Accessibility
Designed to reach between studs, joists, etc.

The Crescent Indexing Nail Puller has a 14-position head so you can always get the best angle for the most leverage to take advantage of its 1/2 ton of prying power. Its built-in striking face helps you dig in and pull out the most deeply driven nails.
